Sells Farm He Hewed from Forest.

Judah Brooks has sold his 160-acre farm near May pond to Louis Auchu of Sherbrooke, Que. There is more than usual interest in the sale of this property as Mr. Brooks bought this 160 acres 43 years ago of J. C. Norris of Morrisville. It was forest land but Mr. and Mrs. Brooks went onto the land and there erected a log house in which they lived a few years. In the meantime, Mr. Brooks was clearing the land and making the fields productive. Later he built modern buildings and brought the farm to its present state of productivity. A fine property and literally hewed out of the forest by dint of hard and continuous labor, where Mr. Brooks has brought up a family and secured a competence. This is an example of thrift which might well be held up before the young people of this generation.

Governor Gates and Other Noted Men at Rallies.

Aside from the big rally at Orleans Monday evening when Congressman Dale and ex-Congressman Plumley speak, there has been scheduled a Republican rally at Westmore Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when Hon. John W. Gordon of Barre and State's Attorney Grout of Newport will speak in the schoolhouse. At Brownington the same evening M. M. Taplin and H. J. Stannard will speak at a rally.

On Saturday evening Governor Gates and Mr. Gordon will speak at Irasburg town hall and on the same evening L. A. Edwards of Newport and M. M. Taplin of Orleans will speak in the town hall at West Charleston. The campaign is drawing to a close with these rallies, and an effort to stir the voters up in order to get them to the polls is being made by a post card mailed to every voter in the county and signed by W. W. Reiden of Barton and F. I. O'Rourke of Derby Line asking the voters to take pride in turning out an old-time vote, and electing a fellow countyman, H. F. Graham, to the office of governor.

AUTO MYSTERIOUSLY LEAVES CHILD ON STEPS

Fifteen-Month-Old Boy Left in Early Morning on Steps of East Brownington Farmhouse.

A child, thought to be about 15 months old, was left on the doorstep of the C. W. Skinner place in East Brownington (on the road from Westmore to West Charleston) early Sunday morning. Miss Elsie Skinner, who teaches school in Irasburg, was home for the week-end and recalls hearing an automobile pass the house about half an hour before the cries of the child aroused the household. It is supposed this car left the boy, who appears normal in every respect and is very attractive, having curly hair and dark eyes. He weighs about 15 pounds. The clothing is described as rather shabby.

Reverend T. G. Crandall took the child in custody after the selection had been notified and made such investigation as they could. Absolutely no clue as to the identity of the child was found and nothing has yet been discovered to lend the least aid in establishing where it came from or why it was abandoned in this manner.

Some think the child was stolen. Others, that its supporters, feeling the pinch of high cost of living, and the possible necessity of the mother to earn her own livelihood and finding the child a burden, took this course to leave the child where it might get good care. None of the theories hold together very well when analyzed.

Why was such an attractive child deserted, and who deserted it?

Mrs. Stevens Injured in Team and Auto Mix-Up.

Late Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of Barton were driving toward town just north of the George Reed place. They met the Stiles milk cart and at the same time the automobile owned and driven by C. L. M. Bugbee of Newport came up behind. In attempting to pass, the car ran into the Stevens team, throwing Mrs. Stevens out and rendering her unconscious. She was taken to George Reed's and was later removed to her home on the Willoughby lake road, where she remained in a rather serious condition for some time, although she regained consciousness soon. She will recover.

After hitting the Stevens team Mr. Bugbee ran his car into the ditch, and it was later hauled out with a team. Stevens' horse ran to the village with the buggy. Both car and team were somewhat damaged but Mr. Stevens escaped injury.

Mr. Bugbee is considered responsible for the accident, though he did not see both teams clearly in the early dusk. The headlights were lighted, but it is a well-known fact that there are a few minutes between daylight and darkness when it is extremely difficult to see distinctly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Robinson of Woodsville, N. H., are the guests of Mrs. Lucy Robinson for a few days.

Judge and Mrs. W. W. Miles have returned from Burlington, where Judge Miles has been holding court.

Election returns will be received by special wire at the rooms of the Barton Improvement club Tuesday evening.

J. W. Batchelder, who has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington for two weeks, has returned home.

F. S. Whitecher has greatly improved his store by the addition of two plate glass windows and glass doors.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Bean and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bean of St. Johnsbury were visitors at E. J. White's Sunday.

Frank Clifford and family have moved from Miss Nellie Cady's house to Orleans, where he has employment.

Mrs. J. F. Batchelder is visiting Miss Gertrude Skinner in Brooklyn, N. Y., and expects to be away about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter entertained a small company of friends at their home last evening at a Halloween party.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conner and son Ralph, were in Hardwick Saturday and Sunday.

Elmer Nye of Bellow Falls and Harland Nye of Derby spent several days last week with their mother, Mrs. Abbie Nye.

The Helen May Abbott Concert company will give a concert here on Dec. 2. The people of Barton have a rare treat in store.

Harry Bolack, who has been employed by H. A. Harding the past season, has gone to work for the Jarvis & Lohue stable.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Holbrook of Newark were guests of Mr. Holbrook's mother, Mrs. Caroline Holbrook, over Sunday.

The Epworth League entertained the high school students and faculty at a Malloween social in the M. E. vestry Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tully Wing of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. J. C. Austin of Orleans were guests at W. J. Cooper's several days last week.

A telegram from H. A. Harding states that the Hills Grove, R. I., races

About the Lecture Course.

It is to the distinct advantage of every intending patron of the Barton lecture course this season to secure a season ticket. Single admissions are to be 50 cents and there are five numbers, while the course tickets are but $2. The talent is of the highest order and since there will be no premium of any kind for choice of seats, those who secure a course ticket at Pierce's drug store or of members of the Barton Improvement club, who hold coupon ticket books, will get their chance of the best seats in the hall. By eliminating the premium for choice and making the choice by lot, there is no advantage gained in waiting until after the drawing. The drawing will take place Friday evening, Nov. 10.

Club members having ticket books are asked to make their final effort to sell tickets now as it is desired to call in the books and have a counting Friday evening.

Remember the date of the first number is Wednesday evening, Nov. 15.

It is needless to again make mention of the high character of the talent this year. Katharine Ridgeway, Laurant, the Weatherwax quartet, and the big triple number, to say nothing of the lecture, mark a new era in talent for a Barton audience.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

REV. I. A. RANNEY, Pastor

You are cordially invited to attend all services.

Morning worship, 10.45.

Sunday school, 12 o'clock.

Epworth League, 6 o'clock.

Evening service at 7 o'clock.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7.30.

The text of the morning sermon was the last clause of the 48th verse of the sixth chapter of Judges, "What ye have seen me do, make haste and do as I have done." Subject, "The Power of Example." The sermon showed that a person's influence is stronger in deeds than in words. A person will do a thing you wish if you say "come" quicker than if you say "go."

At the Sunday School hour, Mrs. C. B. Webster, delegate to the State Sunday School convention held at Brattleboro, gave a very comprehensive and interesting report of that gathering, which was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

The subject for the evening was "God's Witnesses," text "Ye are my witnesses;" all created things witness for Him in their appointed way. Man alone is the only creature given the power of speech, but oftentimes refuses to witness for the Master. The singing was unusually good, the choir being assisted by C. S. Webster with his violin.

are called off and he will return here this week with his horses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Mrs. Mary Warner, Henry Stewart and Arthur Parker of Lowell were visitors at Ai Dana's last week.

Hallowe'en pranks by the boys were few last evening, although there was enough "doing" so that people did not forget what night it was.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Thayer of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Oct. 29. Mrs. Thayer was Miss Irvie Austin of this place.

Miss Ella M. Nichols is in town this week in the interests of the Ladies' Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post and Country Gentleman. adv.

W. E. Hanson has sold the Annis farm at Willoughby to the Kimball brothers, and has sold the Kimball place to Henry R. Friend of New York.

H. A. Folsom and Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Cassidy have moved from the McDougall tenement on Main street to one of J. P. Telfer's tenements on Church street.

The waving of the campaign flag, which was put up between the Phillips block and the Seaver block last week, looks good and reminds us that there is to be an election next week.

The Afternoon Study club and the Woman's Literary club will entertain the Book and Thimble club of Orleans at the Congregational vestry Thursday, meeting at 2.30 o'clock p. m.

A slight collision between the cars driven by C. E. Pierce and O. W. Caron on Monday caused damaged fenders to both machines. The accident happened directly in front of Seaver's store.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Magoon, who have been spending the summer in Crystal Lake Grove, have broken camp and are visiting friends in Newport and Canada.

Remarkably warm weather for the time of year continues in Vermont, which is fortunate considering the price and scarcity of coal. Weather records show that 37 years ago now there was sleighing in Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Plunkett have purchased the place on Church street owned by Mrs. Plunkett's mother, the late Mrs. Colby, and have sold to G. C. Lang the office tenement and a piece of land adjoining the Lang place.

A large number of the neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Watkins, living on the farm they recently purchased of Mr. Leland on the Evansville road, met at their

GOOD CROWD HEAR DALE AND CUSHING

Republican Rally Friday Night Attended by Nearly 300. Speakers Hold Close Attention.

Nearly 300 people turned out Friday night at Seaver's hall to hear Congressman Dale and Editor John Cushing speak in the interests of the Republican ticket. An orchestra of Barton talent furnished excellent music and on the platform with the speakers were the local members of the Republican town committee and other prominent Republicans.

W. W. Reiden presided and first introduced Editor John Cushing of the St. Albans Messenger. He spoke particularly on the theme heard on every side from the Democrats, that Wilson had kept us out of war.

Mr. Cushing quoted from literature sent out by Democratic campaigners and proceeded to dissect it. He said that Wilson's humanity plea was seen in a very peculiar light when it was known that there was going into Mexico from United States manufacturers shipments of soft-nosed bullets prohibited by international rules, and that these awful dum-dum bullets were then used to kill Americans with.

He said that despite the fact Wilson claimed we were not at war with Mexico, 500 Americans had been killed by Mexicans, that 100,000 men were on the frontier, and a United States army on Mexican soil. Mr. Cushing also said that this state of peace in Mexico had resulted in casualties to Americans, that there were in the entire war with Spain under McKinley.

Congressman Dale dealt more particularly with the situation as seen at short range in Washington. He said that following the Democratic platform of four years ago which called for retrenchment in expenses, and after all the Democratic talk of Republican extravagance, the Democrats had spent more money by hundreds of millions than any Republican administration ever spent. He said that for every day the last Congress was in session it spent $10,000,000 and that the government was running behind at the rate of several million dollars every day under Wilson.

The task before the next president is a Herculean task and no man but Wilson's type of vacillation can all us out of the difficulty without entanglements and complications of a humiliating and dangerous character. Reference was made to Wilson's conduct under pressure, in making the Adamson eight-hour law, and his policy of not writing and his absolute neglect to protect the lives and honor of Americans.

Mr. Dale closed with a picture of Charles Evans Hughes, the great and fearless governor of New York. A man who had met and conquered numerous foes, had always analyzed a situation before him, set a goal, and hewed to the line until that goal was reached. This brought forth applause from the audience which paid the closest attention throughout the evening.

home last evening for a social time. Many schoolmates of Robert Watkins were present, also.

Miss Harriet Austin left Monday night for an absence of several weeks. She will first visit her sister, Mrs. Irvie Austin Thayer, at Moose Jaw, Sask., and before her return will visit several hospitals where she will further study electrical and hospital work. She will spend some time in Montreal.

Everyone interested in any way in the Sunday school of either the M. E. church is invited to listen to the debate Friday evening in the M. E. church between representatives of the two schools upon the subject, "Resolved, That the Sunday school is more effective for righteousness than the preaching service."

About 60 members of the Barton Improvement club and ladies enjoyed a hallowe'en social at the club rooms Monday evening. Many favorable remarks were heard about the decorations. The ladies played billiards for a partner and exhibited some remarkable skill. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Parker of Glover entertained with several songs, games were played and a general good time was enjoyed. Refreshments of cider, plain doughnuts, apples and popcorn were served.

Thursday, Oct. 19th, the Afternoon Study club met at the home of Mrs. C. F. Cutler, with 20 members present. An interesting program was arranged for the meeting by Mrs. Lida Flint on "Clothes." Response to roll call, "An Ideal Costume"; paper, "The Evolution of Clothing—Fig Leaves to 1916," was written by Mrs. Ellen Miles and read by Mrs. Thompson; paper, "Freak Fashions of Malloween Periods," Mrs. F. W. Baldwin; debate, Resolved that a woman should follow the fashions. Affirmative, Mrs. Lois Mossman, negative, Mrs. J. N. Webster. Both papers were much enjoyed. Miss Mary Wheeler favored the club with a whistling solo.
